

Revocation Insurance Claims Policy

Policy Owner: General Secretary
Date Approved: 16th October 2025
Review Date: Oct 2028

Introduction

1. In 2021, the Association arranged an additional extension to the insurance cover it arranges which covers members IPSC shooting activity to include cover towards the legal expenses involved should they be faced with action to revoke their Firearms Certificate. The following policy applies and any member wishing to make a claim should follow the process outlined below.

Policy

2. Any member wishing to claim against the Revocation Insurance policy must meet the following conditions:
  - a. The circumstances to which the claim originates must not have been known prior to joining the Association.
  - b. The claimant will not also be using alternative insurance cover.
  - c. The member must have paid their annual subscription (for full Firearms Membership) to the Association, if their membership requires such payment, and be recorded as such in the Associations management information system.
  - d. The circumstances of the potential claim meet the specified terms and conditions of the insurance policy.

Process

3. Potential claims against the Revocation Insurance policy will be processed as follows:
  - a. Potential claimant notifies the UKPSAe at secretary@ukpsa.org as soon as possible of the intention to claim, giving outline details of the circumstances of the revocation.
  - b. The General Secretary will then ensure that the claimant meets the policy criteria at para 2 above and provide the claimant with the contact details of the Broker.
  - c. Once eligibility has been confirmed, potential claimants must provide the Broker with full details of the circumstances which pertain to the claim and be prepared to discuss the matter further with the UKPSA and/or the Broker..
4. If the UKPSA or the Broker requires further information from the claimant or feel that the claim is outside either the Associations eligibility criteria or the specific terms and conditions of the insurance policy; they will inform the claimant as such in writing.
